INPATIENT NURSING SERVICE
FUNCTIONAL CHART
WILLIAM S. MIDDLETON MEMORIAL VETERANS HOSPITAL
MADISON, WI 53705

Office of the Chief
Provides all short and long range planning, supervisory and administrative guidance and budgetary analysis for the service. Provides nursing services to all inpatients.

Unit 4A
Provides nursing care to patients requiring acute care medical-surgical care. The patient population is primarily medical.

Unit 7B
Provides nursing care to patients requiring acute care medical-surgical care. The patient population is medical, surgical, and neurological (includes the Epilepsy Center of Excellence).

SICU
Provides nursing care to patients requiring intensive care. The patient population is both medical and surgical and includes patient's post neurosurgery.

Nursing Support Unit
Provides support to patient care by transporting patients, drawing blood specimens, assisting on the inpatient units providing basic nursing and clerical support.

Unit 4B
Provides nursing care to patients requiring acute care medical-surgical care. The patient population is cardiology, cardio-thoracic surgery, peripheral-vascular surgery, and pre/post transplant.

CCU
Provides nursing care to patients requiring intensive care. The patient population is both medical and surgical and includes patient's post open heart surgery and patients pre/post transplant.

Unit 2B
Provides nursing care to patients requiring in-patient psychiatric care.

CLC
Provides nursing care to patients requiring transitional care, rehabilitation, and palliative and hospice care.